Newscrypto Coin

The backbone of the Newscrypto ecosystem is the Newscrypto coin (NWC token). Its main utility function resides in unlocking access to needed market information on the platform for profitable trading. The token has a burning system meaning its total supply is being organically reduced.

A unique smart contract empowers community-driven ecosystem which grants NWC token to be an effective trading tool and an attractive asset for investors. The token is built on Stellar blockchain which provides the fastest, reliable and low-cost transactions.

Project Background

Unlike most newly developed crypto projects, the Newscrypto platform is an already tested product used by the world's top traders. The concept of the platform goes back to 2015 when the founding team got involved in crypto trading. Spotting deficiencies in the crypto trading industry and lack of reliable market information sparked development of the structure and ecosystem that would disrupt the cryptocurrency trading industry forever. In October of 2019, the idea became reality.

The Newscrypto team now consists of world top traders and advisors that are being paid entirely in the form of our token. This indicates that the success is correlated by the value platform present to the community making the team even more motivated to deliver the best possible results day by day. token. This indicates that the project's success is directly correlated to the value that the platform provides to the community thereby making the team even more motivated to deliver the best possible results every day.

Solution

Specially programmed indicators on Newscrypto can recognize any unstable market reactions and shows you the trends so there are no unexpected occurrences. Platform monitor real money deposits and withdrawals at all major fiat gateways, follow big money movements on the exchanges to control the whale's actions and much more.

But firstly, it's important to educate new members to become a part of the crypto world.

The Newscrypto School program was put together by the most experienced crypto heads in the industry covering everything that is vital to know. The whole section is designed from the very beginnings to expert knowledge preparing the community for real-life trading.

Platform

Trading features

Newscrypto platform is divided into three major tiers; Beginner, Intermediate and Advanced each of them caters to a specific user type.

Beginner tier is accessible by just registering on the platform and consists of basic essential tools and features a crypto trader needs. Intermediate tier comprises of next-level features with more market insight while Advanced tier unlocks the most advanced specially programmed indicators to get the edge in crypto trading. This "package" of indicators allows you full access and control of the action in the world of crypto. New indicators and tools are constantly added to the specter of provided features. Company's roadmap indicates a complete range of necessary features for crypto personas.

Newscrypto School

Newscrypto has developed a school program suitable for beginners and those who want to expand their knowledge about trading with cryptocurrencies.

The school program, designed by the world's best traders is completely free as it is in the project mission to educate as many people as possible to make crypto trading accepted by the masses. The Newscrypto school is partnered with Kucoin Exchange , with more than 2 million users providing them guides for real-life trading.

Community predictions

In the world of crypto, information is power. Newscrypto community prediction section is created for the members to interact with each other and see the predictions other crypto traders make. There is also live chat implemented so the section serves as a mini social media. We collect charts from the most experienced traders to those who are just starting.

Predefined charts

Newscrypto team developed predefined charts that are regularly updated. There are more than eight pairs with support and resistance lines already drawn on the chart with trend lines systematically added by the team. These charts are professionally drawn by the world's top traders but are fully customizable so you can also draw on them and move things around. The lines pinched in the chart have an extensive history value and were market tested. The asset movements prove that Newscrypto predefined charts are one of the most reliable sources in crypto.

Newscrypto coin

NWC is the backbone and the heart of NewsCrypto network.

Its main utility resides in unlocking access to unique smart money movement analysis in the shape of Newscrypto platform features. It is built upon Stellar blockchain and has both utility and value-transfer functions within the network. A unique smart contract empowers a community-driven ecosystem that grants NWC to be an effective trading tool and an attractive asset for investors, especially with its burning system. Apart from burning, the accumulated funds from subscriptions are used to engage new users, reward active members and develop new solutions that provoke a mutually beneficial outcome for everyone involved.

Members will have to pay a weekly, monthly or yearly membership fee in order to see and use all information provided on the Newscrypto platform. On the other hand, everyone behind the platform, namely the team will receive their payments in Newscrypto token entirely. This means that it is in company best interest to provide quality user experience and maximize the value of NWC token.

Token burning

The core of the token development system is token burning. This means that the ecosystem under the platform will automatically burn / permanently remove 20% of NWC tokens received from membership fees. The procedure of token burning reduces the total supply of NWC tokens which results in the organic growth of token value benefiting investors and token holders. When the goal of 1 million members is reached, the company will dispose of all remaining tokens if any.

Advantages

In contrast to other crypto platforms, Newscrypto provides a working tested product, with a much more advanced system, at a cheaper price and even free access to essential tools and educational program. With a 24/7 operating system, Newscrypto is the first source of market changes and a go-to place for many profitable traders.

NWC Ecosystem

The ground base Newscrypto ecosystem is the Newscrypto coin. If a member wants to use platform advanced services and indicators, which provide crucial market information, they have to operate with NWC tokens, since it is the only currency in which the Newscrypto services can be paid. The ticker NWC initially issues 280.000.000 Newscrypto tokens.

From the platform membership fees, 20% of the tokens are burned providing an organic growth for Newscrypto coin. 10% is intended for the community through different user engagements like weekly community prediction rewards and social media tasks. 40% of the membership amount is meant for platform development so the platform grows, and the team can provide more knowledge and market insights for Newscrypto members. 30% goes into marketing to acquire new members and build the community base which rounds the circle back to the organic growth of Newscrypto coin.

Newscrypto.io is the most advanced crypto-orientated platform to date consisting of everything a trader needs; information, knowledge, and confidence all in one. The platform was created for those who want to master the cryptocurrency markets and reach new financial heights.

Specially programmed indicators at Newscrypto recognize any unstable market reactions and display the trends so there are no unexpected occurrences. The platform monitors real money deposits and withdrawals at all major fiat gateways, big money movements on the exchanges to control the
